THE Y. M. C. A. boys will hold their monthly meeting, at the Y. M. C. A. parlors, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SATURDAY will be a lively day. There will be cricket, baseball, foot-ball and a bicycle exhibition, weather permitting.

A MEETING of the Honolulu Athletic Association will be held to-morrow evening, at the Rifle's Armory,

THE Hawaiian Camera Club have determined to give a lantern slide exhibition next month for the benefit of the Sailors' Home.

HANDICRAFT for October is out. As usual it is bright, witty and newsy, a credit to the Kamehameha School and to its editors.

Mr. John Richardson has been appointed an agent to take acknowledgements to labor contract for the District of Wailuku, Maui.

A COMMUNICATION by the Bishop of Honolulu, of which mention has been twice made, has been temporarily withdrawn from publication. THE Temple of Fashion has just received a large lot of new goods by the W. B. Godfrey which will be open for inspection in a few days. Look out for the advertisement! On the 30th ult., at Kohala, Hawaii, Mr. T. R. Mossman and Miss Rebecca Mellish were united in marriage by Rev. J. M. Silver, pastor of St. Augustine's church of that place. THE Friend for November has been published. The leading article is upon "Parental Work in Hawaii." The Friend shows much improvement in religious tone and matter this month over several recent issues. A SPARRING match took place at the Commercial Saloon, corner of Nunanu and Beretania streets, last night between a local celebrity and a game boxer from one of the war ships in port. Some really good sparring was done in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. MR. George Lucas, Jr., and Miss Abbie Banister were united in marriage last night at the residence of Mr. Wm. Auld at Palama. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Bishop of Olba. During the even-ing a fine luau was served. The Bui-LETIN wishes the happy couple many years of prosperity.

NEWSPAPER FACTS.

The BULLLETIN has more than double the circulation of any English daily newspaper printed in Hawaii; the BULLETIN press room is open to inspection every evening, during the printing and distribution of the edition, where the public or interested advertisers can verify the facts for themselves. The BULL-ETIN'S daily subscription list requires 54 quires of printing paper for the edition, and every paper is sent out to home fide subscribers. Multiply 54 quires by 24 sheets and the result will be the number of the BULLETIS's daily circulation. Within the next few weeks new journal istic attractions will be added to the Billeria, which will largely increase both its popularity and its

122ND DAY.

THURSDAY, NOV. 6. The House had a quorum at 10:15

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Noble Muller presented the report of the select committee on the duties of the Fire Marshal, submitting two bills whose passage they recommended. He moved the bills be referred to the printing committee. Carried.

Noble Widemann presented the majority report of the select committee on the bill relating to the streets occupied by the Tramways Co., submitting certain amendments. The minority would bring in a report on the substitute bill introduced yesterday, but that was not an amendment to this bill and the House could deal with it as seemed proper.

Rep. Pachaole moved that the report be laid on the table to await the Noble Widemann objected to this treatment of the report. This bill was necessary. The other was not connected with it and might or might not be passed, Rep. Pachaole's motion carried.

ORDER OF THE DAY. Noble Cornwell moved that the tobacco bill be taken up before the constitutional amendments. Rep. Paehaole said the President could decide; both matters were on the order list. Rep. Hookano believed the more important matter should take prece-

Noble Widemann considered that constitutional amendment bore no comparison in point of importance with the bill to give the hon. Noble a franchise to grow and manufacture tobacco, to give him land and God knew what.

Noble Cornwell said he asked that the bill be taken up because be wished to get leave of absence to go to Maui to-morrow.

The motion carried. The bill was considered with favorable report of select committee. Noble Widemann moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed. Noble Cornwell moved the bill pass. Although the franchise contained his name, it was for the benefit of the public. No exclusive franchise was asked, as the hon. Noble had worked for in the electric light bill yesterday.

Noble Widemann called the speaker to order for using his name. He was as ready to move indefinite postponement of the electric light bill as of this bill.

A member-You didn't do it. Noble Cornwell would refrain from voting, but asked that the ayes and noes be called.

Noble Muller could not see the justice of exempting the corporators | thing. from taxation when small farmers had to pay taxes. Noble Cornwell thought that when the company paid the Government a dollar an acre for land that had only brought ten cents an acre it was entitled to some consideration. Rep. Pachaole supported the bill as encouraging a new industry. He liked the till because the applicant came right out with his own name, and unlike other members did not put other names in the charter for themselves and then work for it. He moved the previous question. Noble Widemann desired to speak, but was ruled out till the previous questions was put. The motion carried and the ayes and noes were called on on the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill, which was lost on the following vote: Ayes-Nobles Widemann, Berger,

Muller, McCarthy-4. Noes-Ministers Cummins, Brown,

Spencer and Peterson; Nobles Macfarlane, Pua, Phillips, Crabbe, J. M. Horner, Hind, Parker, Marsden, Baldwin, W. Y. Horner, Walbridge, Anderson, G. N. Wilcox and Kanoa; Reps. Cummings, Lucas, Nawahi, Baker, A. Horner, Kahoo-kano, Waipudani, Apiki, Pachaole, White, Kanealii, Cockett, Halstead, Knudsen, Rice and Wilcox -33. Rep. Bush declined to vote because he was against tobacco. Noble Kauhane asked to be excused for the same reason. Reps. Brown, R. W. Wilcox, and Kauhi voted "doubtful" and stuck to it when recalled. The bill passed, to be read a third time Monday.

Consideration of Constitutional Amendments with report of select committee.

Sec. I of the committee's bill to amend Article 48 of the Constitution, so as to make it read as follows, was read : "Article 48. Every bill which shall have passed the Legislature, shall, before it becomes law, be presented to the King. If he approve he shall sign it and it shall thereby become a law, but, if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the Legislature, which shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to reconsider it. after such re-consideration it shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of all the elective members of the Legislature, it shall be returned to the King for signature, but if such signature shall again be refused, then it shall become a law. In all such cases the votes shall be determined by year and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of the Legislature. If any bill shall not be returned by the king within ten days (Sundays ox-

and the state of t cepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.' Minister Brown moved that the amendment pass. Carried. The committee's amendment to Article 56 was read as follows: "Article 56. A Noble shall be male subject of the Kingdom, who shall have attained the age of twenty-five years and resided in the Kingdom three years, and shall be the owner of taxable property in this Kingdom of the value of three thousand dollars over and above all dollars per annum." Rep. Pachaole said the only change made was the insertion of the word "male," so that none but a male subject of the kingdom could be a candidate for Noble. He mov-

Noble Macfarlane objected to the manner in which the bill was presented. It seemed to be all mixed

Reb. Brown said this was the report of the committee. Noble Widemann moved that the bill be printed. Noble Baldwin said that the amendments in the report were exactly the same as in the bill, and by looking at the report members could find every amendment. There was nothing more in the bill than appeared in the report. Noble Macfarlane objected to the manuer in which the amendments were confused in the printed report, and he did not propose to have these amendments rushed through without protesting. He understood that the Article providing for the qualification of voters for Nobles was rushed through while he was looking for it, and he was opposed to certain provisions of that amend-

Minister Brown said that Article had not been reached yet. The bill was very plain, if the hon. Noble could not read English he was not fit to be a Noble.

Noble Macfarlane claimed he was as fit to occupy his seat as the gentleman sitting in the treasury chair. Noble Widemann called the Minister to order. Such a remark should not come from that quarter. If he (the speaker) were to use such lan-guage, he could be hauled over the coals for it. He thought His Excellency owed an apology to the House. Noble Macfarlane, continuing, said if the Minister of Finance was satisfied with the spectacle he had made on the floor of the House, he had nothing more to say on that score. As the thing was before the House, however, he maintained it was confusing. Noble Cornwell said that if the hon. Noble would go through the printed report he would find every-

Noble J. M. Horner found no trouble in finding the place of each

Noble Widemann said they were now on Sec. 2 of the bill. Would the hon. Noble show him Sec. 2 in that report. He moved the section be indefinitely postponed. Rep. Nawahi said the section proposed an amendment to Article 56 of the Constitution, the intent being to prevent women from being elected to the House of Nobles. If a woman set up now in some districts, she would be elected probably, but the country was scarcely ready for female legislators. Rep. Kanealii objected to the section because it did denote the country whose Constitution they were amending. The section passed.

The committee's proposed amendments to Article 59 were read. They consist of substituting the word "subject" for "resident" in the first paragraph so that it shall read : "Every male subject of the Hawaiian Islands, of Hawaiian, American or European birth or descent. who shall have attained the age of twenty years, and shall have paid his taxes, and shall have caused his name to be entered on the list of voters for Nobles for his District, shall be an elector of Nobles, and shall be entitled to vote at any election of Nobles, provided:" And also that the clause numbered second of said Article 59 shall be amended to read as follows:

"Second -That he shall own and be possessed in his own right of taxable property in this country of the value of not less than one thousand dollars over and above all incumbrances or shall have actually received an income of not less than six hundred dollars during the year next preceding the registration for each general election.

Noble Macfarlane said it seemed this amendment was retracing the steps taken on the franchise. It sought to remove the franchise granted by the New Constitution to foreigners who came up to the property qual-fication and took the oath to support the Constitution. This would disfranchise a large number of mechanics and Portuguese, who might not wish to surrender allegiance to their own country, and he would like to have some explanation of the amendment from members of the committee, particularly those belonging to the Reform Party.

Rep. Hush said this was a matter on which the aborigine had looked with a jealous eye. All that the foreigner had to do for qualification in this regard was to become naturalized, which only cost five dollars a head. He moved so smendment to the income qualification, to substitute "six" hundred dollars with "three" hundred dollars. Many worthy and industrious natives were debarred from voting by the present franchise. Noble Baldwin said several intelligent Hawaiians were on the committee, who agreed that the change in the property qualification was sufficient without touching that of income. Hawaiians had a grievance which he admitted in high property qualification. The committee concluded that it was reasonable to require that the voter should be a subject. Both these amendments should be considered together, when it would be seen that they shut off a large encombrances, or in receipt of an number of voters against whom the income of not less than six hundred Hawaiians objected. Taking both charges together the proposed amendment of the Article should allay the feeling of Hawaiians. There should be some distinction between voters for Nobles and for Representatives, but the amendment of Rep. Bush would in some districts have the effect, practically, of putting all the voters on the same level. In such a case they might as well make the House all Representatives. Recess from 12 to 1:30.

MAUI NOTES.

The bicyclist Mr. Malthy enlivened the people of Wailuku by a performance last Saturday in the skatingrink. A large audience applauded the excellent skill, with which he rides his steel horse. Last night he gave an exhibition at Paia and had a very good house. The burglar scare from Honolulu has reached Wailuku. A couple of weeks ago the Wailuku market premises were entered and the safe cleaned out. About $800 in coin was taken besides a number of very valuable papers, the property of Mr. Goodness. Attempts have been made to break into other residences but without success. Of course the police is asleep, although suspicion points strongly in a certain direction. In case of a Chinaman having opium in possession we always find the police on the alert, but they do not feel themselves called upon to protect the taxpayers' property. Of course in the opium case the police gets a share of the fine and of the opium, while there is nothing in catching a burglar. A splendid system! The 16th of November will be celebrated on the 15th by several interesting horse races at Kahului. Honolulu sports had better come up and give the Maui boys the re-vanche for last meeting. We regret to learn that Mr. Philip Moudt, for a number of years paymaster of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co., at Spreckelsville, has resigned his position. Mr. Moudt will be greatly missed by his many friends on this Island and also by the workingmen on Spreckelsville, for whom he always was ready with advise and assistance. We hope that when Mr. Moudt departs CRAZED by change of temperature of from the country at the end of this | the water. month, he will carry with him many pleasant reminiscences from the years he has spent on Maui, and we wish him success wherever he goes.

THE AERMOTOR CO.,

The 8 ft. Aermotor you sent me last year has given good satisfaction and has done more than you claimed it would do. I attached a 5-in. lift pump to it and can tell you it surprised every one to see so small a rod run so large a pump with so long a stroke (6-in.), and do it so easy. Several gentlemen from Stockton came to look at my mill. They had seen one there pumping from a tub and they did not think it was strong enough to pump from a deep well, but when they saw milne in a 60-ft. well they were convinced of its power and very much pleased with it. My Aermotor would supply 1,000 head of cattle with water, but I do not use it for stock, but for irrigation. One day I noticed a 12-ft. "wheel, 4-inch stroke, standing still for 3 hours when my 8-ft. wheel with 6-to, lift pump, 8-inch stroke, was pumping nicely.

I am entirely satisfied with the 8-ft. Aermotor, as it is doing the same work the 13-ft. * * * is doing and both with same advantages and same depth of wells. ORGONTA, Cal., Nov. 5, 1889. H. H. HAMMOND.
